". . . it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith . . ." - Jude 3

Jack & Sue Crans

"What is thy beloved more than another beloved, O thou fairest among women?" She answers: "My beloved…is chiefest among ten thousand…yea, he is altogether lovely." "Whither is thy beloved gone, O thou fairest among women?" She answers: "My beloved is gone down into his garden…to feed…to gather…I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine!" Song of Songs 5,6 (selected verses)

What a beautiful reference to a believer's love for the Savior/King: the Lord Jesus Christ! We ought to be able to identify with the two vital questions asked of the young bride: (1) What causes you to love this Savior/King? (2) What is your Savior/King doing that would cause you to follow him?

The front page of today's paper displays a visual commentary of this present hour in our nation's history. Vigilant soldiers stand next to armed missile-launchers next to the Washington Monument watching the skies for imminent, deadly attack from within our own air-space. How well we know that our 'remaining' White House, Capitol and national archives continue to exist only by the grace and mercy of God. The whole earth seems poised for imminent war, drawing lines of division that are right from the pages of the holy scriptures. Truly, the 'sons of Abraham' are being drawn towards a most dangerous war.

It is in the seeming paradox of the above paragraphs that I write to you today. First, let me briefly answer the above two questions. Why do I love this Savior/King? The answer is within the very question. I love Jesus because He is my Gracious Savior and my Awesome King. I live in the context of this most dangerous and

HABAKKUK'S PRAYERS: EMBRACING GOD WITH A BURDENED AND WATCHFUL HEART!

Habakkuk 1:2 "O LORD, how long shall I cry and thou wilt not hear..?"

Habakkuk 2:1 "I will stand my watch and set me upon the tower and will watch to see what He will say unto me and what I shall answer when I am reproved."

Habakkuk 3:1 "O LORD, I have heard thy speech and was afraid. O LORD, revive Thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known, in wrath remember mercy."

Tower / Rampart

Habakkuk 3:17-19 "Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labor of the olive shall fail and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold and there shall be no herd in the stalls: Yet I will rejoice in the LORD. I will joy in the God of my salvation. The LORD God is my strength and He will make my feet like hinds' feet and He will make me to walk upon mine high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments."

Christian book sales were recently record breaking when it came to the passion of God's people for the "Prayer of Jabez." 1 Chronicles 4:9.10 "And Jabez was more honorable than his brethren: and his mother called his name Jabez saying, Because I bare him with sorrow. And Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, Oh that thou wouldest bless me indeed and enlarge my coast and that thine hand might be with me and that thou wouldest keep me from evil, that it may not grieve me! And God granted him that which he requested." Plaques, key-chains, hats, shirts and every-sort of merchandise followed for everyone's own interpretation and application of the Prayer of Jabez. Its appeal was a wall-street boom! Although a most wonderful prayer, I grieved that it seemed so convenient to the fabric of American ingenuity and themes of success and personal gain.

The 'Prayers of Habakkuk' most probably wouldn't make a 'best-sellers' list, but, they may well be the most urgent cry of this present hour. The present 'war' with Iraq looms all too familiar to the very text of Habakkuk's burden. Many of the same issues are facing us at this very moment. Please allow me to note a few: (1) Violence and injustice seem unrestricted and without remedy; (2) A formidable and dangerous enemy seeks to rein terror on our nation; (3) Indifference and hypocrisy defines our own spiritual condition; and (4) Few seem to be interceding before God for healing and revival of the nation and most especially, the household of faith.

In a recent interview by the Philadelphia Inquirer I was asked: "What is the greatest challenge of my ministry during the last 30 years?" I answered emphatically: "Discovering leaders who will commit themselves to the urgent cries we hear daily….."

saddening world with fullest joy in His abiding, faithful and caring love. Most truly, Psalm 23 and Psalm 100 declare my heart in vivid declarations! What is my Savior/King doing that causes me to follow Him? He is Lord of the Harvest! He calls us to 'go forth weeping, bearing precious seed' knowing that we shall one day return 'with rejoicing' having gathered a full-harvest!

The unique ministries of County Corrections Gospel Mission allow us to penetrate a world of prison and police authorities. The extending ministries to desperate boys and girls through our Camp at Old Mill are but mirrored images of countless children whose lives are being crushed in the terrors of violence, loneliness, abuse and despair. The prison house at Chester County only reflects the incarcerated millions world-wide who languish in corridors of steel and mortar, weeping in the night and too often, surrendering their precious souls to a hopeless, Christ-less eternity. Our 'Moms Bible Club' calls us to a deep sensitivity to the single-parent, the fatherless home and the sorrows of the poor and broken family.

What is my highest hope and anticipated dream for our base of ministry at the Camp at Old Mill? It is for God's fullest anointing upon our 22+ acres! My heart yearns that we be a fortress of prayer, a rampart for the rescue and healing of children's hearts and a tangible witness to the glorious, unfailing grace of the living and true God. It is for these yearnings that I pray God's blessing upon our grounds, buildings and staff. Although some fellow-laborers have left us, God has supplied even more for His vineyard. Our volunteer staff has never been more faithful or numerous. Cooks, cleaning crews, snow-plows, counselors, teachers, builders, electricians and all encouragers are God's most wonderful gift to us, daily! I must tell you that we need full, fiscal support for both the Jason Jarvis and Kirk Okumura Families. Jason and Kari Jarvis (with two children) have already forsaken all else to join with us. They are living on 50% of what they really need to continue in this ministry. Kirk and Jennifer (with three children) are seeing an increasing base of fiscal support, but, are still 30% shy of coming alongside CCGM with total surrender of their lives.

Sue and I spend almost every Lord's Day with either a supporting church or more commonly, a needful church that longs for a pastor. We have received sad and disheartening news from several churches that they can no longer support their missionaries. Hence, the early weeks of 2003 were days of discouragement and cause for wonder. Many who support CCGM are growing older and many are facing a season of retirement income and shortfalls in their own lives. We need you to know that we face unprecedented opportunities, yet, realize our total ministry's future rests in God's provision through consistent, caring individuals and churches.

The 'Contender' newsletter is only a brief sketch of a growing, exciting season of ministry. Those who support us regularly hear from us regularly. Often, people say that they don't hear from CCGM, yet, communication is constant toward all who either seek or share in CCGM's ongoing work. Perhaps as many as two-thousand friends, churches and families will receive this issue of the 'Contender.' Experience has taught us that less than 20% of those receiving it will engage themselves towards any support or encouragement of this ministry. Let us know that you want to hear from us regularly and we shall gladly comply!

– Praising God for You!

CAMP AT OLD MILL: "STEWARD OF GROUNDS AND FACILITIES"

Available House for Steward of Grounds

Colossians 3:23,24 "And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not unto men; knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ."

Acquisition of the contiguous 3.5 acres at the Camp at Old Mill brings our total base-site to approximately 22 beautiful, wooded acres which are situated along the quiet waters of the Brandywine River's 'West Branch.' The water-path that once powered the 18th Century Grist Mill still flows beneath the historic dining room now a dedicated facility for the reaching of precious souls for Christ. Warm, comfortable dormitories are kept clean and welcoming for the children, youth and adults whose lives have been drawn to the contemplative surroundings of this preserved Bible Conference Grounds from the 1930's. Winter's snow has quietly blanketed our woodlands and meadows this year while the frozen waterways still provided the resting place for migrating fowl. White-tailed deer sneak carefully along protective, wooded slopes while squirrels and chipmunks seem vigilant in playful, hungry searches.

We are praying that God will raise up $30,000.00 for the high-calling of a faithful "Steward of Old Mill's Grounds and Facilities." Although our ministry to children, youth and adult needs goes forward vigorously, we need to address the God-honoring care of our acres and our buildings. We believe that this God-provided property calls for our stewardship of His loving grace towards us.

Perhaps your life has been touched by the early years of the Old Mill Bible Conference or you remember Sunday School Picnics and Youth for Christ Meetings in the enduring chapel. Many have surrendered their lives to Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior on this property and some have even been called to serve God in full-time ministry. The original Charter of 1933 not only heralds a high view of God's Word and a zealous commitment to world evangelism, but, the likes of Dr. Donald Grey Barnhouse and Dr. Clarence E. Mason called for the perpetual keeping of these premises for the declaring of God's Word until the Savior returns in His Second Coming. In August of 1992, God entrusted this mandate to CCGM and we remain steadfast and faithful in the deportment of this stewardship.

Rather than support a specific missionary, would you prayerfully consider embracing the care and continual maturing of the Camp at Old Mill? After all, it's from these very grounds and buildings that CCGM continues in the work of evangelism from Chester County to the regions beyond. One visit to this beautiful campus will bear witness to the goodness of God 'for such a time as this.' God will raise up His faithful laborers! It is our prayer that we might be able to provide for the needs of such who would heed the call to this great stewardship and opportunity for service. Since the ministry of The Camp at Old Mill is under the umbrella of County Corrections Gospel Mission, all gifts towards this project need to be payable to 'CCGM' with noted designation to the Camp at Old Mill.

THE HOSTESS HOUSE @ THE CAMP AT OLD MILL

It was at this very time one year ago that CCGM was making settlement on the 3.5 contiguous acres, the barn, carriage house and facility of the 'Hostess House' at the Camp at Old Mill. Although the house required significant upgrades, by mid-July it was occupied and ready for fullest use. Since occupation, we've been host to our Mothers' Bible Club, teens-in-crisis, staff/volunteer fellowships, Older Girls' Bible Club, Law Enforcement leaders from Romania, California, Pennsylvania, New York City, Baltimore, Alexandria, Kenya, South Africa, Syracuse and literally hundreds of friends and supporters. Our rooms have been filled with laughter, tears, prayers and on-going preparation for all that God has called us to do. A remaining balance of approximately $85,000.00 exists on the entire acquisition and renovation. As I write, we are commencing strategic transformation of the 3-car garage into a meeting room and staff apartment. By June, we believe that God is going to raise up willing servants to impact the future use of the 18th Century barn which sits on the edge of all our ministry's present undertakings.

Thank you for seeing the vision with us and for bringing us to this present place of opportunity. Since our ministry is located between strategic cities of New York and Washington, D.C., we are hoping to be host to police leaders from around the world. We look forward to Spring and the maturing of the surrounding lawn, gardens and quiet woods of the Hostess House. May God be highly exalted in the lives of all who frequent this wonderful setting at the Camp at Old Mill.

CHESTER COUNTY PRISON – AXIS OF EXTENDING MINISTRIES

Chester County Prison has been the power-train and axis-point of our ministries since 1973. The heart-cry of the prisoner has always heralded a burden for his/her family, the community from which they came and the professions who keep them under lock, key, shackle, gun, adjudication and iron gate. We can never separate the reflected urgencies of the prison-house from the callings and mandates of God which are relative to concerns of doing justice, loving mercy and humbly walking with God. (Micah 6:8) Whether the violent, sniper-crimes of a Baltimore-Washington suburb, the unsolved abduction of a pregnant mother, or the growing fears of terrorism's mass destruction, one can never flee the vexing reality of a nation and world 'at risk.'

May God open our eyes and hearts upon this terminal generation. We're growing to understand the cry of the hurting, single mother, the desperate anger of the fatherless child and the unique mandates laid upon the law enforcement systems of this present, insecure world. Whether the chaotic, violent disorder of Somalia or the Gorilla-warfare tactics within our own 'homeland', we face an 'hour' of awesome spiritual warfare.

The Chester County Prison employs the largest contingent of peace-keepers in the region. How can one separate the prison from the work of the courthouse, law enforcement and the tears of domestic relations, children's services or the very cries of our back alleys and city streets? The prison house mirrors an unceasing, urgent cry!

Many years ago at the Sandy Cove Conference Center I was asked to participate in a Pastor's Conference. I led a poorly attended workshop which I entitled: "Jail and Prison Ministry: The Plumb Line of the Local Church." I've never argued that one must enter a prison to address the cry of the prison house. In fact, I'm more and more convinced that if we neglect the purposeful addressing of the cries of the poor, the fatherless, the stranger, the law enforcer and the moral decline of our own nation(s).....we, in fact, will have failed in the concerns of the prison house. After all, the most legitimate ministry must occur within the very grasp of the local church and towards the resounding cries which the prison house only reflects in the smallest measure. Eighty percent of prisoners are coming home soon.....the urgency laid upon the people of God is at our very doorstep!

I believe that Chester County's Commissioners and the Administrative/Command Staff of the Chester County Prison has forged and continued to maintain a high regard for the declaring of truth in the midst of the prison. It is very tragic that our own county courthouse presently must veil the Ten Commandments from the eyes of the public. We must recognize our own nation's need for God's mercy and pardon and pray that He spare us 'for such a time as this.'

The Chester County Prison shall continue to be the axis of our ministries at CCGM! The City Gate Mission, Children's Bible Clubs, Mothers' Bible Clubs, the Camp at Old Mill, Christian Police Association(s) and our urgent cry to the local church shall always find its basis from the mandate of the precious scriptures and the continued, mirrored urgencies of the prison house!

"County Corrections Gospel Mission is an incorporated Mission Agency headquartered at the Camp at Old Mill (West Brandywine, Chester County, Pennsylvania) established to address and serve the nation's spiritual crisis now partially reflected in Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice Systems (worldwide). A commitment to and burden for the development of a local, national and international strategy which Biblically focuses on the people groups most impacted by family breakdown, poverty and crime is the aim of its ministry heart." MAKE A DIFFERENCE AT THE CAMP AT THE OLD MILL

In the following list of needs, work projects and ministry opportunities we are praying that you might locate one or more concerns that you personally might be able to impact in the next few weeks and months. The cost of maintaining the camp facility is ongoing, yet, we attempt to present the buildings as clean, attractive and affordable as we are able. Perhaps you would consider raising up a ministry team which would commit a day's work to the approaching Spring's season of readiness for Summer Camps. We already anticipate boys and girls from Brooklyn, Philadelphia, City of Coatesville and Maryland. The needs noted are ongoing, so, always welcome at The Camp at Old Mill. Pointman Leadership Institute and Christian Police Associations

Proverbs 29:2 "When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn."

The scriptures of both the Old and New Testaments both describe and cry for faithful watchmen in every generation. We know that David had his faithful, mighty men and that Elijah was not alone as a prophet. Gideon was victorious by God's giving him 300 faithful warriors. Noah had his three sons and Nehemiah led valiant laborers in the re-building of the Jerusalem walls and gates. Jesus chose his inner-circle of Peter, James and John and taught often of the importance of faithfulness, obedience and selflessness. It can be truly stated that God raises up a faithful remnant in every generation.

My eyes have long affected my heart in the ongoing observation and experience of the prison-house. I associate nations with police systems and their use of power and authority. The eyes and heart of God break at the ruthlessness, injustice and perversity of the nations. The mistreatment of the oppressed, weak and lonely never is unseen by the living God! David cried: "Help, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men." Psalms 12:1

Let me assure you that God is still at work in the heart's of leaders! Christian Police Associations and Principle Based Leadership (through Pointman Leadership Institute) are ministries led of God for the discovery, encouragement and training of faithful authorities throughout the world's governments and police systems. Unprecedented doors of ministry are opening throughout the world and especially in country's once closed to the Gospel of Christ. National Police Generals, Prison Training Academies, Parliaments and strong-leaders of nations are hearing the cry of God upon their role as stewards of His delegated powers!

Permit me to take just a moment to praise God for a few representative, courageous leaders who are serving in high places at this very moment:

Matthias Lehman-Germany	Cyrille Oguin-Republic of Benin
Mike Askew-United Kingdom	Gary Raymond-Australia
Mark DeBrody-United States	Mike Cassidy-Canada
Quintus Smit-South Africa	Nick Sensley-Lithuania (the Baltics)
Michael Okuo-Nigeria	Kibingi Maturi-Kenya
Pavel Abraham-Romania	Felix Ceccato-Switzerland

1 Timothy 2:1-3 "I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers and intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; for kings and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior; who will have all men to be saved and to come unto the knowledge of the truth."

VOLUNTEERS APPRECIATED / NEEDED: BIBLE TEACHERS, COOKS, EVANGELISTS, MISSIONARIES, BUILDERS AND GROUNDS KEEPERS!

'Retired' builder John Sturgis, Sr.(beloved friend of the Crans' Family since 1973) drives often from his retirement village in New Holland, Pennsylvania to tackle one building-improvement need after another. In the dirty, hot, refurbishing project of CCGM's Hostess House at Old Mill this past Summer, he labored like Noah alongside his precious son, Scott (who died tragically weeks later) and together completed the installation of all windows, framing, hanging of doors and full-finished-replacement of a new custom kitchen. John and Charlene (his wife/another precious encourager) still comment about the wonderful experience of those summer weeks with Scott. The Camp at Old Mill brought them together for a brief, but, important season of father-son communication and fellowship. The Hostess House is a standing testimony to the grace of God which works in the lives of surrendered and willing servants.

'Community Service ' workers are common to the Camp at Old Mill. The departments of Chester County Probation and Parole send us willing helpers who, though required to volunteer 40 to 400+ hours, gladly contribute to the cleaning, grounds-keeping and maintaining of our 22+ acres and facilities.

Youth and Adult Mission Teams are always scheduled for our summer's weeks of outreach to children, youth and adults through our camp, area juvenile detention facilities and the Chester County Prison. Calvary Chapel of Philadelphia reports often of the impact such ministry has had on the life's choices and careers of their youth and adults.

A normal Thursday's Bible Clubs require as many as 40+ volunteers, weekly. Van drivers, cooks, youth counselors, cookie-juice specialists, and teachers for all ages converge upon the Camp at Old Mill. Many of our volunteers are retired and even more who come are students from area universities such as: Eastern, Philadelphia Biblical, Millersville and Immaculata. (More than 25 stay for dinner every Thursday night) Up to 150 moms, boys and girls are ministered to during a Thursday's programs.

Landscapers, carpenters, plumbers, cooks, electricians and willing laborers are always needed for the maintaining of the Camp at Old Mill. We pray that our grounds and buildings will always be a praise to God's working in the lives of servant-hearts. Time is a valuable gift from God's storehouse of grace. Perhaps, the giving of our time and personal resources is the costliest of ventures! In fact, isn't it the challenge of God's calling upon us all: 'Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus....made himself of no reputation and took upon him the form of a servant....he humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.....Wherefore, my beloved, ...work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.' Philippians 2:7-13

Elizabeth Elliott, Passion and Purity. Fleming H. Revell, 1984 (2002 Re-Print)

Any reader of Elizabeth Elliott's writings knows that her experience in Christ and in her relationship with her martyred husband, Jim, will be a study in biblical application to real life and ministry. Passion for Christ's calling and glory in our life becomes the highest motive for Purity in choosing and in loving our life's partner. A must reading for unmarried men and women.

MARK THESE DATES

Sunday, August 10, 2003, Dr. Woodrow Kroll, Radio Pastor & General Director of Back To The Bible, will be the featured keynote speaker for a CCGM Rally at Hephzibah Baptist Church at 6:00 pm.

FOURTH SUNDAY NIGHT MEETINGS

The Camp at Old Mill will be the site of three Fourth Sunday Night Meetings in the Summer of 2003. We ask pastors and churches (particularly those without Sunday night meetings) participate with us in these open-air-meetings at 6:00 pm on June 22, July 27 and August 24. (Details To Be Announced)

Habakkuk's burden declares a forceful heart-cry for this present hour! We must come to a place of overwhelming heaviness-of-heart related to our culture and admit that our need is not that God bless us and increase our borders……but, rather, that He find us interceding with fervent cries for His reproofs, His working and His mercy in the midst of potential and imminent wrath!

I can't think of anything more needful in this present hour than for 'leaders' and 'all in authority' to daily posture themselves as Habakkuk: watching and waiting upon the 'high place' (tower, rampart) of their own specific realm of authority. Whether President George W. Bush, Attorney General John Ashcroft, pastors of churches, wardens of prisons or fathers over their own families: we need intercessors who stand between the vexing travail of this present age and the listening, merciful throne of God's unchanging, marvelous grace!

We need a raising up of broken-hearted leaders who can weep with Jeremiah and embrace God's heart as did Habakkuk!

Be sure of this, I dare not ask God to bless me anymore than He has already! I'm a debtor to His gracious kindness beyond a reasonable doubt. My most urgent need is to be surrendered to a ministry of intercession. My eyes have deeply impacted my heart and, on behalf of my family, my ministry and my world, I am most useful when on my knees before God in fervent waiting and watchfulness!

May it come from all of our lips and from all of our hearts….and from all in authority: "LORD, revive Thy work in the midst of the years, in wrath remember mercy!"

Spring Report 2003

A Policeman's Prayer

O God, you have given me the task of maintaining law and order in this community. It is a much more dangerous and frustrating task than it once was. Give me the courage and the resolution at all times to do my duty, and give me such a love and respect for justice that neither promise nor threat will ever make me depart from it. Help me in a real sense to be the Guardian and the Friend of the whole community - a friend to the children, an example to the youth, a counselor and advisor to all good citizens. Give me the skill and wisdom and the strength I need to capture the evil doer and to keep him from his misdeeds. And give me at all times wisdom to know when to enforce and when to relax the letter of the law. Help me to be a personal example of the honesty, the goodness, the justice which it is my duty to maintain, and help me to win the authority which comes from respect. Through Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen.
